MINING

Work Will be Resumed

More Actively Than Ever With Appearance of Spring.

The Joplin Zinc Market—New Machinery for the Ada Florence and Trumbo Mines.

Joplin, Mo., February 26.—The highest price paid for zinc ore in the Joplin district last week was $56 per ton for the product of several leading mines. The basic price was practically unchanged at $51 to $53 per ton for 60 per cent. zinc. Some zinc sold at much less than the previous week.

Lead sold in Joplin for $57 per ton, and at Webb City as high as $59 was paid early in the week, and $58.50 per ton later. With the advent of moderated weather, instead of a noticeable break in the zinc ore market, the opposite is quite apparent. Very few bins sold at less than the previous week, while a number of bins brought a higher price, and the bulk of the ore was sold at prices practically the same as the previous week. The output was increased about 75 per cent., yet nearly every pound produced was sold, and almost all of it shipped. Hand Jig and Silicate mines, as well as mills, were opened and put out a lot of ore. With the increased output came an increased demand, some of the smelters who have been buying closely increasing their purchases considerably.

Mr. Wm. Miller, of Louisville, was in the city again last week in consultation with other members of the Louisville-Marion and Commodore Mining companies. On his return to Louisville he was accompanied by Superintendent Persons of the two companies, and further matters will be discussed with Louisville members of the companies relative to the installation of machinery at their mines here. It is reported that orders have been placed for washers, boilers, etc., which are to be used for handling spar at the Ada Florence and Trumbo mines. We are informed that these people have several hundred tons of spar ready for washing at the above mines.

Mr. E. W. Smith, formerly in the banking, tobacco and mining business, at Paducah, Ky., who, it is said, made a snug fortune in that city during the past few years, removed to California a few months since. One of his successful deals was the sale of the Pell mine, a few miles back of Sherterville. Several of the stockholders of that corporation, the Imperial Mining Company, are talking out of meeting about what they propose doing to the promoter of the company unless he returns the money they paid in for the mine and the mill, as they seem to think the property a worthless one. The Pell mine has never been given half a chance to assert itself or to prove what it carries in the way of zinc and lead ore and fluorspar. At 70 feet depth in the working shaft is a very handsome, high grade body of zinc and lead ore, and we doubt if any better showing can be had at that depth in this district for these two ores. The stockholders should put a good mining man in charge up there and find out what they have in sight, and keep at work taking it out. In that way they will probably make dividends and avoid lawsuits. —Goldsboro Herald-Enterprise.

The fluorspar shipments for the week were:
12 cars gravel 681,150 lbs.
19 barrels ground 10,132 "
7 cars ground 318,397 "
Total 1,009,679 lbs.

Messrs. Cruce, of Marion, Ky., and Waggoner, of Elizabethtown, met in Paducah on Friday last for the purpose of securing the Pell mine for Eastern parties. —Goldsboro Herald-Enterprise.

Roberts & Co. have purchased forty acres in the vicinity of Karber's Ridge for mining purposes. A 25-foot shaft, opening at an eight foot vein of fluorspar, is already in evidence. This property is located near the Hamp mine and is midway between the Lee mine, of the Marion Mineral Co., and the Hamp property. —Goldsboro Herald-Enterprise.

J. E. Delker, of Owensboro, who is interested in the Delker-Archer mining property on the Widow Beard place, was here this week.

W. G. Archer, of Owensboro, was in the city Saturday looking after his mining interests on the widow Beard land.

A Card.

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

I came home from school on Feb. 13, for the purpose of making a thorough canvass of the county for the nomination at the primary to be held April 1 for assessor, but owing to illness I have been and am yet confined to my room and physicians advise me that I will not be able to be out for a week or ten days yet. It will not be possible for me to make a thorough canvass of the county before the primary, as I had intended to do, but I will see as many of you as I possibly can, and any favors shown me will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

J. ANTHONY DAVIDSON.

Prospects of a Canning Factory.

At the Commercial Club meeting Tuesday night, Mr. C. B. Newland, representing the Hasting's Industrial Company of Chicago, addressed the members concerning a proposition to install a canning factory here. Mr. Newland has made a contract to install a factory at Dycusburg where a company has been organized. They have contracted to have the Dycusburg factory completed and ready for operation within ninety days and would also contract to install a factory here and turn it over ready for operation this season, or within ninety days after organizing a company.

Their plan is to assist in organizing a local company who would agree to purchase a completed plant and assume its operation.

No official action by the Commercial Club was taken but several members agreed to subscribe stock and to assist in organizing a company to install a plant.

The prospect, however, will be thoroughly investigated before definite action is taken.

A letter from Mr. Granberry Jackson, to the secretary of the Commercial Club, expressing his regrets on account of his failure to have a report on the water works proposition ready for submission at this meeting of the Club, was read. Mr. Jackson stated that a report, however, would be ready at an early date.

The Club meeting was only fairly well attended but was very enthusiastic withal, and gives promise of fostering great benefits for town and county.

TABULATED

Assessment of County

Shows Considerable Increase Over Preceding Years.

Increase is Slow and Steady, as is Seen by Comparison of the Years 1902, 1903 and 1904.

County Clerk C. E. Weldon has just completed tabulating the 1904 assessment, on which 1905 taxes will be based. We publish below a few statistics taken from the report, also showing a comparison with the two preceding years.

It will be seen that from 1902 to 1903 the tobacco crop was reduced one-half, and last year it was reduced two-thirds. It also appears that last year 2,400 acres of woodland disappeared in the county. More than 350 were lost to the schools of the county as compared with the preceding year.

There has been little difference in the amount of corn raised, but a great reduction in the number of bushels of wheat, although last year the production per acre was greater and the quality was better.

In the corresponding value of mules and horses there has been an increase.

While these values may not represent actual values because they are given for the purpose of taxation, the statistical parts are correct, and an increase in an assessed value means a corresponding increase in actual value. Take it all in all, the slow, steady increase in the net taxable value of the county means a substantial wealth.

Mrs. Lamb Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Lamb, widow of the late James M. Lamb, died here Saturday at the home of her son, J. Wesley Lamb. Mrs. Lamb was a native of this county, having been born March 22, 1828, in what was then a part of Livingston county, but now Crittenden. At the time of her death she was a little more than 76 years and 11 months old.

Her maiden name was Taylor, and she was the daughter of Timothy and Evaline Taylor. In September, 1848, she was married to James M. Lamb and they lived happily together for 55 years and until death called the husband away in November, 1903, at the age of 76 years and seven months. It was remarkable that both husband and wife, though not the same age, should live on earth about the same number of years and months.

Mrs. Lamb was the mother of five children, three of whom died while young. The two that survive are J. Wesley Lamb, of the Marion Milling Company, and Mrs. Ruth F. Hicklin, wife of W. S. Hicklin, candidate for sheriff and the present deputy sheriff of this county.

Mrs. Lamb was a lady well known and loved by all. She was a member of the Methodist church, and having become a christian at the age of ten, her life was almost entirely spent in the cultivation of that gentle spirit that comes from above and bears testimony with our spirits, teaching us to resign ourselves to the will of the divine hand. She lived an exemplary christian life and her days were well spent on earth. At the time of her death she was a member of the Green's Chapel M. E. church, and in the cemetery at that place she was laid to rest Sunday afternoon in the presence of loving friends and relatives, the funeral being conducted at twelve o'clock.

STATES ARE LINING UP IN GREAT BATTLE

Against the Standard Oil Combine.

Three States Besides Kansas Are Considering Crusades on the Monopoly.

Texas, Iowa and Oklahoma May Enter the Fight, and it is Quite Likely That Other States Will Follow Suit.

GOVERNMENT AFTER BEEF TRUST

Stocks of the Standard Oil Company have dropped to the lowest point touched in ten years. The reasons for this are obvious. Ten or twelve States and territories are attacking the Standard. An order has been given by President Roosevelt for a rigid investigation into its operations not only in Kansas but in the rest of the country. Primarily the investigation is to be made by a bureau of the department of commerce and labor. Actually, however, the department of the interior and the department of justice have also been enlisted in the work.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 28.—The house of representatives of the Illinois legislature unanimously voted a loan of $100,000 to the State of Kansas to aid in its fight with the Standard Oil Company. It is said the sentiment of the State senate is equally pronounced on the subject.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 28.—The assenting committee will recommend the passage of a bill making the Standard Oil pipe lines common carriers.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 28.—The Wisconsin legislature will likely come to the assistance of Kansas in the fight against the Standard Oil Company.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 28.—Thomas Lawson says he is in a position to give information that will lead to the complete exposure of the Standard Oil methods.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 28.—Former Attorney General Frank S. Monnett, of Ohio, who has long fought the Standard Oil Company, has been employed by the Kansas Oil producers' association to assist in the fight on the Standard.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Standard Oil stock sold yesterday for $600 a share, a decline of 31 points within a week, as a result of agitation against the company by the president, congress, Kansas, Texas and California. The drop represents a shrinkage of thirty-one million dollars in the market value of the stock.

FIGHT GAINING STRENGTH.

TOPEKA, Kas., Feb. 28.—The fight on the Standard Oil Company was pressed with great vigor in the legislature last week. Petitions from all over the State have poured in urging the legislators to vote for the Smith anti-discrimination bill. There are less than a dozen townships in all Kansas that have not sent word in some manner to the assembly advocating the bill.

The manner in which the independent producers have been discriminated against by the increase in freight rates that went into effect immediately after the Standard Oil Co. had completed its pipe line to Kansas City, is shown in the fact that all rail shipments have ceased.

SYMPATHY WITH KANSAS.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 28.—A resolution of sympathy with Kansas in her gallant fight against the Standard octopus was introduced in the house by F. D. Hunter.

Coupled with the expression of sympathy was a declaration that while the Nebraska State University accepts a considerable sum of money from John D. Rockefeller for the erection of a university temple, the people of Nebraska have no sympathy whatever with the dishonest practices and the outrageous positions for which John D. Rockefeller's great monopoly is responsible.

EARNINGS OF STANDARD OIL TRUST.

The people of this country can better appreciate the magnitude of the Standard Oil trust when the earnings of that vast institution are given.

In the twenty-three years of its existence the Standard Oil company has paid $496,065,000 in dividends on its $100,000,000 of stock. This $496,065,000 is considerably more than one-fifth of all the money, —gold, silver and paper—in the United States.

The $496,065,000 hitherto distributed does not represent the total profits of the oil combine. What its surplus and undivided profits are no one outside of the innermost hierarchy of the oil kings know. Nor is there any means of knowing how much is spent each year in lobbying and influencing legislation, in crushing competition and strengthening the grip of the combine on its monopoly.

By far the larger part of the Standard Oil profits have been accumulated in the last nine and a quarter years. Prior to 1896 the total dividends paid amounted to less than $130,000,000. Since that date the profits have been on such a scale that the total is astounding. —Paducah Register.

BEEF TRUST FIGHT.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 28.—United States officials after months of secret preparation last week made the first move toward an extensive inquiry into the operations of the so-called "beef trust." Subpoenas were issued in Chicago for 185 witnesses who will appear before the federal grand jury on March 20th. A large majority of the witnesses reside in Chicago, but subpoenas have been issued for agents and heads of departments in fifteen other large cities of the country where the packers are transacting business.

It is believed that the government is in possession of important evidence and that the movement will end in a series of criminal prosecutions.

SALEM STAYS DRY

Other Brief News Notes From Livingston County.

Saturday at Salem a special election was held for the purpose of deciding whether that town should have saloons or not. At present it is dry and as a result of the recent election no grogshops can open there as thirty-four voted against them and ten for them.

RURAL DELIVERIES.

Word from Smithland Saturday was that a rural free delivery had been allowed the county leading out from that postoffice, while one delivery was allowed out of Grand Rivers also.

DOING ALL RIGHT.

Blunt Hodge continues getting better, according to reports from Smithland. He will be up before long.

TIRIED OF LIFE.

John Morris, colored, tried to hang himself in the county jail at Smithland, first by twisting wire around his neck and tying it to the top of his cell, and then again by tying his suspenders around his neck. Other prisoners discovered him both times and prevented the suicide. He is being held to the grand jury on the charge of buying stolen property. On being prevented from suiciding he begged the jailer to shoot him.

LANDRAM SUPPORTS CLARK.

County Clerk George Landram, of Smithland, has come out in a card saying he is not a candidate for state senator to succeed J. W. Gilbert, of Murray, but that he will support Editor Clark, of the Livingston Democrat.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at R. F. HAYNES' drug store.

Teachers' Training Class

BY REV. JAS. F. PRICE

Again we make a skip of seven months in the life of Christ. Last Sunday's lesson was in March just before the Passover near the shores of the sea of Galilee. Next Sunday's lesson was in October at the feast of the Tabernacles. He went up secretly to the feast, but as was his custom, when the people sought him he began to teach.

OUTLINE OF LESSON.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Biliousness." 25c at R. F. HAYNES' druggist.

LOOK in YOUR MIRROR

What would you give to be rid of those pimples and blackheads, that sallow complexion, those lustreless eyes? No doubt you would give 50 cents to be cured of constipation, liver troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia! Get rid of these troubles and your complexion will clear up like an April day after a shower. Take

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

Mrs. Mary O. Hahn, No. 303 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes: "For ten years I have been troubled with biliousness caused by inactivity of the liver. I had dirty spots at times, pains across my back and a tired, heavy feeling with loss of appetite and nervousness. My family physician prescribed some liver tablets, which certainly did not help me in the least. I took Apollinaris and other mineral waters, but my complexion became more sallow and my general health worse. Reading one of your little booklets, I decided to give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a trial and am so glad I did. One bottle did more for me than ten dollars' worth of other remedies. I know as once I had the right remedy I kept taking it for several weeks, when I considered myself completely cured. My skin is white and smooth as a baby's and I feel in excellent health and spirits. Thanks to your remedy."

LETTER TO HARRY STEELE.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 24, 1905.

Master Harry Steele,

Marion, Ky.

My Dear Sir:—

I noticed an interview in the Louisville Herald the other day to the effect that you had contributed your last cent towards my defense. My dear young man, I have no words that will adequately express my gratitude to you for your sympathy, your sacrifice and the innate love of justice welling up in your pure young heart.

Under separate cover I send you with pleasure a complimentary copy of the argument I made before the jury in my own behalf. If I can ever be of the slightest service to you, you must not hesitate to command me. I am innocent and I propose to continue the fight until victory is won. I am

Gratefully yours,
CALEB POWERS.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case they fail to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The Railroad Man's Prayer.

Oh, Lord, now that I have flagged Thee, lift my feet from off the rough Road of Life, and plant them on the deck of the Train of Salvation. Let me use the Safety Lamp known as Prudence, make all couplings in the Train with the strong link of Thy Love, and let my Lamp be the Bible. And, Heavenly Father, keep all switches closed that lead off the sidings, especially those with a blind end.

Oh Lord, if it be Thy pleasure, have every semaphore block along the line to show the white Light of Hope, that I may make the Run of Life without stopping. And Lord, give me the Ten Commandments for a Schedule, and when I have finished the Run, and have, on Schedule time, pulled into the great dark Station of Death, may Thou, the Superintendent of the Universe, say, with an approving smile: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, come, sign the Pay-roll and receive your check for Eternal Happiness."—Ex.

Henderson County Has Paid Last Note
Given for Her Gravel Roads.

The following brief history of the Henderson county gravel roads is reproduced from the Gleaner. It will prove interesting to our readers inasmuch as the question of gravel roads is frequently up for discussion in this county. The Gleaner says:

Henderson county now owns all the gravel roads within its boundaries, the last payment on the pikes being made by County Judge Hart Thursday.

The question of issuing bonds to extend the gravel pikes to the limits of the county may be submitted to the voters at the county election. If this is not done the present levy will be used in making the extension.

Judge Hart paid $3,466.29 to the Henderson and Corydon Gravel Road Company Thursday. The amount was the last installment due from the county on the purchase price of $23,000 and included the rent which the county has paid to the company since the deal was first made. The deed to the road was turned over to the county. It was signed by James E. Rankin, Jr., secretary, and P. J. Marrs, president of the company.

The county now owns nineteen miles of gravel road. On the Henderson and Corydon pike there are seven miles of improved roadway, for which there was paid $23,000. On the Henderson and Zion pike there are five miles, which cost $15,000, and on the Henderson and Cairo pike seven miles which was bought for $22,000.

The effort of the county to own all the improved gravel roads dates back to 1897. The fiscal court on August 27 of that year adopted a motion to call an election for the purpose of issuing bonds to purchase the roads. At the election two questions were submitted to the voters. The first was "Are you in favor of free gravel roads?" and the second, "Are you in favor of issuing bonds for the purchase of gravel roads?" At the election the first question carried but the second did not.

On December 15, 1897, a motion was made in the court to purchase the gravel roads and a committee was appointed to confer with the presidents of the roads. The committee was composed of Magistrates G. W. Smith, W. W. Cooper and J. A. Bennett. At the April meeting the committee conferred with the presidents of the three road companies, James E. Rankin, Elijah Sellers and George W. White. The price of $60,000 was agreed on for the three roads.

The actual purchase was not made, however, until October 1898, when County Judge Ward was directed to make the purchase and to take an option on those not bought and to lease the same at $1,320 a year. A tax of twenty cents was then voted to pay for the roads.

The payments on the roads have been made annually ever since. Thursday when Judge Hart entered the order for the last payment and the deed was turned over to the county the end of one of the largest transactions in the history of the county was reached.

The idea of issuing bonds for the extension of the pikes to the county limits is being seriously considered and it will likely be submitted to the voters at the election next fall. It is thought the proposition will carry if submitted to the people, though it is likely to create no little agitation. The county is free from bonded indebtedness and could well stand the burden. If the question is not submitted at the election the present gravel road tax levy may be used in extending the pikes.—Morganfield Sun.

The Engineering Committee of the Isthmian Canal Commission has laid before that body the first definite plans for the construction of the waterway. They call for a sea-level canal with a bottom width of 150 feet and a minimum water depth of 35 feet, at a total estimated cost of $230,500,000. The time for the completion of the work is estimated at from ten to twelve years.

During the year 1904 County Clerk C. E. Weldon entered records of 371 transfers of real estate.

The inauguration of President Roosevelt, Saturday, March 4th, will be attended by simple ceremonies. He was elected by an overwhelming vote in perhaps one of the greatest history-making periods in the life of the Nation. He will be the 26th president of the United States.

Stocks of high-grade oil will be drawn upon from the fields of Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky at the rate of 25,000 barrels a day to be shipped to Japan, that country having placed an order for 10,000,000 gallons of refined oil to take the place of the Russian product. During the past week the pleasant weather had the effect of hastening the completion of wells in the Kentucky and Tennessee fields. Wayne county alone furnished six wells, two of them being seventy-five-barrel strikes.

Russia's internal troubles go from bad to worse. In Warsaw a soldier accompanies each policeman to keep him from striking. All the railway systems except one have been placed under martial law. The postal telegraph officials threaten to strike. In Riga the officials are unable to cope with the situation. A condition amounting to civil war prevails in the Caucasus. The government has been forced to grant concessions in Siberia. The autocracy seeks to prevent the convoking of the Zemsky Sobor. Evidence accumulates that the agitation is more political than economic, and that a general foment may follow in the spring.

The Standard Oil Co. has excellent cause to be frightened a little at the outlook. For nearly a third of a century it has been assailing the natural laws of trade, has been conspiring against the interests of the people and has been laughing at the men who make and the men who execute the laws. The laws which were made against such conspiracies as the Standard never reached that combine. The men who were expected to execute them, and who were paid by the government to put the laws in operation, shirked their duty, or, making a pretense of attempting it, were beaten by the hired attorneys of the big aggregation. It had come to be recognized throughout the country that the Standard Oil Co. stood above the law. President Roosevelt's move against the Standard will show that this assumption was an error. The Rockefellers, Fricks, Flaglers and the rest of the Standard magnates could snap their fingers at Kansas, but the United States is a power that can curb them. This is the reason why stocks of the big combine are rapidly falling. They will fall farther before the government's hand is taken up.

A Card to Voters.

TO THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

I take this method of asking the nomination for re-election to the office of County Attorney at the primary to be held Saturday, April 1st, 1905. The duties of the office will prevent me making a thorough canvass of the county. I would like to serve the good people of Crittenden county one more term and to anyone who may see fit to support me for the nomination, I assure you the support will be very much appreciated and if I am nominated and elected for another term, I will endeavor to serve the people fairly and impartially. CARL HENDERSON.

WANTED—Trustworthy man or woman to manage business in this county and adjoining territory for well established house of solid financial standing. $20.00 straight cash salary with all necessary expenses paid weekly by check from headquarters. Money advanced for expenses. Position permanent; previous experience not essential. No investment required. We furnish everything. Enclose self-addressed envelope. Address, Manager 810 Como Block, Chicago, Ill. 31-121

To the Voters of Crittenden County:

I am a candidate for the office of county attorney subject to the action of the Republican party, and owing to the shortness of time and the further fact that the next term of the circuit court is in March and will prevent me from seeing many of you before the primary, I therefore take this method of saying that I am very anxious to serve you one term as county attorney, believing that I can discharge the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of the people. Most of the people of this county know me, and my official acts are all matters of public record in the office of the county judge and county court clerk, and are open to the examination of all persons.

Should you give me the nomination and I am elected, as county attorney I will have nothing to do with the levying or fixing the amount of your tax, except in an advisory way, as that is fixed by the State and fiscal court of the county, composed of the county judge and justices of the peace of the county, supervised by the county and State boards of equalization, and the only duty the county attorney has to perform in this matter is to give legal advice when called on by any of the county officials and to represent the interest of the county in any matter coming before the courts or boards in which the county is interested.

If you believe me competent to perform these duties I will very much appreciate your support, and as to whether it is to your interest to vote for me or someone else is a matter I leave for the people to decide for themselves.

If I am given the nomination and elected I promise you that I will use all the energy and ability that I can command to discharge all of the duties of the office faithfully and efficiently, and I will be found at my office at all reasonable hours, unless called away in the discharge of the duties of the office.

Thanking you for past favors and again asking your support in this race, I am

Yours very truly,

J. A. MOORE.

Passed Away.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane McConnell died Tuesday, aged 74, at her home near Shady Grove where she has resided for a number of years with her son, Albert McConnell.

She was the widow of John N. McConnell, who passed through the valley of death about thirty years ago, leaving her the responsibility of caring for and directing the interests of seven children who survive her. Mrs. McConnell was a member of the Baptist church, and her great character is evidenced in the lives and characters of her children, all of whom are a prominent among the best citizens in the communities where they live.

Her body was interred in the Shady Grove cemetery Thursday in the presence of many relatives and friends. The funeral was conducted by Rev. T. L. Atwood, of Shady Grove.

Jake Bettis, an uncle of Judge J. P. Pierce, of this place, died Tuesday at his home in the north-western part of the county.

Universities and Religious Belief

By DR. CHARLES CUTHBERT HALL, President Union Theological Seminary, New York.

But there are in all educational institutions many who are doubters in religious matters. There is a form of doubt which is a willful form of intellectual disdain of all things savoring of religion.

The doubt of which I speak is that which arises from the confusion of the mind suddenly transferred from the atmosphere of home thought, where many of the facts of religions are accepted without investigation, to the strenuous atmosphere of university thought where everything is investigated and nothing is taken for granted. The bewilderment of the mind in the change to a new intellectual environment is, in truth, an intellectual necessity which cannot be escaped.

Many a youth or maiden of noble purposes when assailed with this doubt has been filled with a sense of self-reproach and has felt guilty of sin. But this is not a subject for sinful reproach. A reconstruction of intellectual habit is needed in order to grapple with the immensity of the propositions presented to the seeker after truth.

To those struggling with this burden I would give a few words of counsel as an elder brother: In your thinking seek for an open mind. I believe it is well to know what great thinkers have said against the Christian religion. It is the faith which is founded on knowledge which is strongest. Have patience and time will help to solve your difficulties. Be of a peaceful mind, ready as a child for instruction, and above all rest your cares with God and He will aid you to a fathoming of the doubts which vex you.

Love and Romance

By MISS ALICE FISHER, A Well-Known Comedienne.

rude and untutored Ingomar. This would suggest that, in her mind, love undoubtedly was inevitable, and, therefore, unavoidable. It seems to me that love is not a matter of election, so far as what is frequently termed the saner instincts, governed by modern conventions, are considered. Of course, my view is that of the strictly feminine. One of the most primary—or perhaps, better, primitive—instincts in woman is to love and be loved. She can't help it. Why, it is one of the most important components in the scheme of femininity. All women require affection, perfection of which, of course, is true love. If you are really and truly feminine, love for and of the genuine masculine becomes an essential to complete happiness, all jugglers in the ethical circus to the contrary.

Voyage Across the Pacific

Having recently returned from the Orient and having been questioned by many regarding the East, I am going to ask the editor to allow me a short space in one of the columns of his worthy paper. Time and space will only allow me a short sketch on some of the most interesting facts regarding a sea voyage from San Francisco via the Hawaiian Islands, Wake and the Ladrone Islands to the Philippine Islands, returning via China, Formosa, Japan and Hawaiian Islands to San Francisco. The last land to feast the eye upon in sailing out from Golden Gate is the Furlallone Islands, after which we speed away to the southwest to see nothing but the surging waves and great fish for seven days and nights, when we can then sight Diamond Head, a barren point of the southeast corner of Oahu in the Hawaiian Island group. The first stop is Honolulu on this island—the capital and principal city of the group. On approaching this port the first to attract our eye is the celebrated zig zag electric railway climbing the mountains in the rear of the city. There are many points of interest here, the principal one being Queen Lil's Palace—a large, magnificent structure of marble and granite, surrounded by an immense stone wall. In this enclosure is a beautiful park of grass, flowers and trees and many fountains. The largest fountain resembles four mammoth lions' heads with water squirting from their mouths to a height of many feet in the air.

The people of the Hawaiian Islands belong to the Malay race, though they are above the average size for that race, being really larger than the average American. These islands are volcanic and lie near the Tropic of Cancer. The principal agricultural product is sugar.

Our next land as we sail southwest is Wake. On our 22nd day out sailing from S. F. Wake is a low, small island of no importance and non-inhabited. Our second stop is Guam, the largest and most important of the Ladrone group, mountainous and of coral formation. The islands take their name from the character of their inhabitants, "Ladrone," a Spanish word meaning "thief." We reach Guam on the 25th day sailing from S. F. Our next land is some of the small southern islands of the Philippine group. On our 31st day we arrive in Manila. A word now regarding the inhabitants of the Philippines and then we will proceed to China.

The native Filipino is thought to have descended from India, especially those inhabiting Samar Mindonoo and others of the Southern Islands. The inhabitants of Luzon are more of the Malay race. They profess a crude Catholic religion, while those of the southern islands are Mohammedans, being barbarians and savages, killing, robbing and cannibalism being their only occupations. They live in the woods, many of them, flocking together in one large wigwam, or better known as a Nipa shack and are always at war with their neighboring tribes. They are very small in stature, being of a dark brown color, high cheek bones, black, wavy hair, black eyes and no beard. Space will not allow me to touch upon their customs here, although I will give you those later. The people of Luzon are not so savage and have far better customs as I will also tell you later.

We leave Manila and have 36 hours sail to Hong Kong, China, a British port near the mouth of the Si river. There we find every nation on earth represented, everyone struggling for a livelihood of his own. From Hong Kong we have a four days voyage to Nagasaki, Japan, on the southwest coast of Kinshu. On approaching Nagasaki there are many points of interest. The harbor has many small islands near the entrance, everyone covered with flags on a direct line with the flags on the next islands, thereby marking the exact point where so many deadly mines are planted, only awaiting the signal to blow some ship and its inmates to a hazardous death. All neutral vessels are towed carefully in and out by Japanese small vessels that they may pass these deadly enemies softly. I will tell you more of the Japanese in another article. On leaving Nagasaki we have a 24 hours voyage to Yokohama on the east coast of Nippon.

This port is very much the same as Nagasaki, then we have a voyage of 2300 miles to Honolulu, thence 2100 miles back to San Francisco, Cal.

Next week I will tell you more about the people of the East.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from Liver and Kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold, and guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Kidney Disease, by R. F. HAYNES, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

The guests included Miss Essie Strouss, Miss May Fausnaught, Miss Ruth Golden, Miss Florence Luty, Miss Helen Armstrong, Miss Willa DuBarry, Miss Ariana Murray, Miss Muriel Crawford, Miss Miss Mary McKinney, Miss Clara Carlisle, Mrs. Sidney Smith, Mrs. Walter Nuttall, Miss Margaret Nelson, Miss Elizabeth Nelson, Miss Bess Phillips, Miss Grace Schumaker, Mrs. James P. The case for alleged criminal assault against E. J. Trail, the barber, preferred by Mrs. Ramie Bradford, fell through in police court with a dull thud. Interesting Letter.
Gladstone, Ky., Feb. 14, 1905—
EDITOR CRITTENDEN RECORD:—I find while visiting my old home and surrounding parts that many are making preparations to try their fortunes in different parts of the West.

Now, if you will give me space I will tell them a few things about the great country of Arkansas, of which I have visited many parts and probably what little I can tell of it will be of benefit to some one.

Arkansas is an empire in extent in which are, as yet, thousands of acres of cheap land that will respond to every effort.

The climate is all that could be desired. The average altitude being 2,000 feet above the sea makes it a country of extreme healthfulness. It is above the zone of yellow fever and malaria is only known in the lower, swampy counties.

It is destined to become the home of a healthy, hardy race of people, and that which is true of the human race applies equally well to the health of all domestic animals.

There are springs of pure, clear water and living streams which abound with all kinds of fish for those who first occupy the beautiful land where flowers bloom perennially and the grass lives through the entire year.

Is this the kind of home you seek? If you do, there is danger in delay. This beautiful land is awaiting occupation today, but will not be vacant many years. Aside from the adaptability of these lands for agricultural purposes, there is a mild climate throughout the entire year where farmers are not, from necessity, compelled to expend the whole earnings of the summer to provide for the necessities of the winter.

The history of pioneer farmers who settled and developed the great country west of the Mississippi river in acquiring lands at two or three dollars per acre, and having them enhanced ten and twenty fold within a few years, thus creating wealth while enjoying the comforts of a life of industry, will be repeated in this new field, and with quicker results than have ever been realized in this past.

The person who seeks a home in Arkansas and expects to find it a paradise without effort on his part, will be disappointed there as elsewhere. Neither should the man who has nothing but his energy and muscle to depend upon, expect to realize the full extent of his hopes. To him that hath shall be given, is as true today as it was nineteen hundred years ago, even though his possessions be limited in extent.

It is essential to the fullest measure of success in this as in any new country, that a man has at least, supplies to carry him through one season while he is learning to adopt his previous farming experience to the different requirements of that climate. He should have good teams, a few cows and sufficient means to acquire his land and build his home. No matter how humble for the man whose condition is such, there is no reason for a moment's hesitation.

Stock farming—which means some attention to stock in connection with crops, is the true method of agriculture in Arkansas.

The man who has the good judgment to agree with this idea, and the intelligence to understand the condition of the climate and resources of the soil can find no fairer field in the entire universe where man will in a very few years have an independent income, increasing herds and flocks, waving fields of golden grain, bursting granaries, blooming orchards, convenient markets that can never be outstocked and a home of happiness and contentment which he has had the satisfaction of arranging for himself.

Where there are a number of families in a neighborhood who desire to emigrate to a new country they should organize into a colony and settle together. By this method they take with them an acquaintance and will thus be enabled to hold together and carry their peculiar views in regard to church and school management.

In a financial way, colony organization can procure concessions and inducements from owners of town sites or large tracts of land, who will often make large donations for special purposes to secure their location, and thus assist in a more rapid development of the adjoining country. This is even more important to the colonists themselves as it gives them a settled community at once where otherwise it would require years.

It is not necessary to bring your household goods, as furniture can be obtained there at about the same price with the freight added. The same is true of farming tools. However, where several families are moving together and they cannot dispose of these things without loss it might be well to charter a car and ship their goods together.

Of course, you want to know about the game. The buffalo, once abundant in the western part, are now things of the past. The deer and antelope that leap the forest are the largest and best game. Fire-hunting, still-hunting and driving with hound and horn are the three modes of securing them. Wild turkeys afford a favorite sport to the early riser in the gobbling season of the spring. Geese and ducks are yet plentiful on the rivers and creeks. Rabbits of different kinds, coons, squirrels, opossums, foxes, wolves, wildcats and panthers are found in all sections.

If any further information is desired about Arkansas, write to me with enclosed stamp at Pollard, Ark., and I will gladly tell you all I know.

Saying good bye to you and my old home, I am

Yours very respectfully,
JOHN E. ROBERTS.

ELEVEN RECRUITS

New Comers Who Will Take Seats in Senate on March Fourth.

The U. S. Senate is composed of ninety Senators, and after March 4 next the Republicans will have fifty-nine and the Democrats thirty-one. This count gives the Republicans a Senator from Delaware and a Senator from Missouri, now deadlocked as to choice. There will be eleven new Senators in the Senate. The new comers in the Senate will be:

Frank P. Flint, of California, to succeed Senator Thos. A. Bard, Republican.

Elmer J. Burkett, of Nebraska, to succeed Senator Charles H. Dietrich, Republican.

Ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter, of Montana, to succeed Senator Paris Gibson, Democrat.

Morgan G. Bulkeley, of Connecticut, to succeed Senator Joseph R. Hawley, whose health did not permit him to become a candidate for re-election.

George Sutherland, of Utah, to succeed Senator Thomas Kearns, Republican.

Isidor Raynor, of Maryland, to succeed Senator Louis E. McComas, Republican.

Gov. Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, to succeed Senator Jos. V. Quarles, Republican.

George S. Nixon, of Nevada, to succeed Senator William M. Stewart, Republican.

Mr. Raynor, of Maryland, is the only Democratic Senator to enter the Senate. Under the present policy of the President, and from his well-known and independent attitude on public questions, it is believed that La Follette, of Wisconsin, will often vote with the Democrats on important questions at issue.

Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles

Sunday School Lesson for Mar. 5, 1905
Specially Prepared for This Paper.

LESSON TEXT.—John 7: 37-39. Memory Verse.—Read entire chapter.

GOLDEN TEXT.—"Never man spake like this man."—John 7: 46.

TIME.—October, A. D. 28, at the Feast of Tabernacles. About six months after last Sunday's lesson. It was towards the close of Jesus' third year of ministry and about six months before His crucifixion.

PLACE.—Jerusalem. In the court of the temple.

NOTE.—Penton, in his Memorabilia of Jesus, calls this chapter "A Drama, a Tragedy in Seven Acts in which seven characters play their parts." Prof. Dods entitles it "Jesus Discussed in Jerusalem," (also in seven parts). This was the first serious development of opposition recorded by John.

SCRIPTURE REFERENCES.—Water of Life: John 4: 14; 7: 37, 38; 8: 12, 13; 9: 4; 10: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

The Holy Spirit, symbolized by water: Prov. 3: 21; Eccl. 1: 6; Jer. 17: 13; Zech. 14: 16; Luke 11: 13; John 4: 14; 7: 37-39; 14: 16, 17, 18, 19; Acts 2: 1-4, 16-18; 10: 44, 45.

Heaps on the Golden Text: Isa. 11: 2, 3; 42: 1; Matt. 7: 29; 12: 28; Luke 2: 40; 11: 2.

Comment and Suggestive Thought.

The Feast of Tabernacles. This one of the three annual religious festivals of the Jews was celebrated for a week in the month of Tisri, which corresponds with our September or October. It was to commemorate the dwelling of the Israelites in tents during the wilderness wandering, and booths made of branches of trees were erected everywhere in Jerusalem—on the house-tops, in open courts and public squares. In these all the people, save those who were ill or very aged, lived during the festival season, enjoying all the merriment of a prolonged picnic. It was a harvest home and thanksgiving celebration combined. Many sacrifices were offered. On each of the seven days the priests, accompanied by a choir of Levites with trumpets and cymbals, went in the morning to draw water in a golden pitcher from the Pool of Siloam. Amid the blast of trumpets and the shouts and singing of the multitude, this was carried to the temple and poured out before the altar into a silver basin. This commemorated the water flowing from the rock (Ex. 17: 6), and typified the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit. On the eighth day the booths were broken up and the people prepared to return home. This was, however, reckoned as a part of the feast, and special sacrifices were offered.

V. 37. "Jesus stood." Probably in Solomon's porch, overlooking the temple courts, whence he witnessed the great procession of pilgrims in holiday attire, coming to the sacrificial service. "And cried." At a pause in the services his clear voice rang out in the hearing of the great multitude.

V. 38. "He that believeth." He then goes on to explain what "Come unto me" means. To come to Jesus is to believe on Him; not merely to believe what one has read or heard about Him, but to entrust one's heart and life to Him; to accept His love and give Him our love, thus coming into sympathy with Him, and participating in His life, which is eternal life. "As the Scripture hath said," etc. No direct quotation from Old Testament writings is given, but such passages as Isa. 58: 11; Joel 2: 18; Zech. 14: 8, are alluded to. "Out of his belly," Better in Rev. Ver., "from within him,"—that is, from his heart and through his life. "Rivers of living water." Jesus alone is the source of living (life-giving) waters; His disciples are channels through which this flows to others.

V. 39. "This spake He," etc. John now explains what Jesus meant. John lived, and wrote, after the "age of the Holy Spirit" had begun; had himself been one of those who, upon that notable Day of Pentecost, of which we read in Acts 2, had received the Holy Spirit in abundant measure.

V. 40. "This saying." This gracious invitation which Jesus had given.

"This is the Prophet." The one promised in Deut. 18: 15, 18.

V. 41. "This is the Christ." Arguing, doubtless, as before (v. 31), that none could do more beneficial works, or speak more gracious words, or show more clearly that he was a representative of God, than did this Jesus of Nazareth.

V. 44. "Would have taken Him." Wished to have Jesus arrested. As on a previous occasion and later, Jesus passed through the midst of crowds who wanted to stone or otherwise injure Him, yet none lifted hand against Him (Luke 4: 29, 30; John 8: 59), so now no one touched Him.

V. 45. "Never man spake like this man." They could explain their strange inability to seize Jesus only by referring to His words, whose peculiar force they felt. All through His life it had been noted of Jesus' words that they were authoritative, and thus differed from those of the recognized teachers of the day; that they were winning, gracious; evidently were the words of God, and just such words as human hearts were hungry for.

Practical Points.

V. 38. God blesses us, not for ourselves alone, but to make us blessings to others. "I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing."—Gen. 12: 2.

V. 44. Not without the Heavenly Father's permission can hostile hands be laid upon any child of God. "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper."—Isa. 54: 17.

V. 46. Let the peculiar purity and grace of our conversation convince all hearers that we are Christians. "Only let your conversation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ."—Phil. 1: 27.
